South Carolina NHA Environmental Screening Form

Detailed Project Description/Location:

The Old Train Station (The Depot) has come a long ways since it was use as a passenger and freight Station for North Fork Southern Railway. The Depot was built between 1905 and 1907. This is determined by the use oyster shells instead of lime in the brick motor, which was discontinued in 1912. North Fork North Fork Southern discontinued passenger services to Ninety Six 1950. The old train depot lies between an abandoned North Fork South Railway and Highway SC 34 in the central district of Ninety Six. The historic nature of the depot is an added attraction for tourists as they travel South Carolina National Heritage Discovery Route
